Application Form
Advanced Organic Production and Marketing Training
With a Focus on Vegetable Crops

Application Deadline: December 1, 2004

This Advanced Organic Training will be held over three sessions in 2005:

- February 28-March 3, Hudson Valley, New York
- June 27-30, Central Pennsylvania
- September 19-22, Southern Maine

Participants are required to attend all three sessions. There will be some preparatory work required prior to each training (approx. 5 hours). If you are accepted into the training, there will be a non-refundable $100 fee to reserve your space, which will be applied to materials costs. Costs for travel, lodging, food, and other materials are covered by a grant from the USDA’s Northeast Sustainable Agriculture Research and Extension (NESARE) Professional Development Program.

Name:
Title:
Organization:
Address:
Phone: Fax: Email:

Areas of expertise:

By signing this application form, you indicate your commitment to attend all three sessions and fully participate in the training. The signature of your supervisor insures that s/he is aware of this commitment and supports your full participation in the training.

Applicant Signature: Date:

Supervisor Signature: Date:

Supervisor Name:
Please answer the following questions. Your answers will be used to fine-tune the training and will be shared with the other participants.

1. What do you hope to gain from this training and how will it affect your work?

2. Please list and very briefly describe work you have done with organic farmers and possible future projects with organic farmers:

3. In what aspects of organic production do you feel you have a strong knowledge base?

4. Please list 3 questions you have about organic production systems:

5. In what areas of organic production do you need additional training?

Please return this completed form to:
Brian Caldwell
162 Plant Science Building
Cornell University
Ithaca, NY 14853

Any questions? Contact Brian at 607-255-9911 or 607-564-1060 or email:
Bac11@cornell.edu

Thank you!